AGRICULTURAL AND INDUSTRIAL ASSOCIATION
OF QUEENSLAND

2021 TREASURY BRISBANE EMERGING QUEENSLAND WINEMAKER OF THE YEAR

DESCRIPTION

The RNA and Treasury Brisbane are committed to supporting the Queensland wine industry through the annual awarding of the Treasury Brisbane Emerging Queensland Winemaker Award.

The recipient will be provided with the following rewards, aimed to further develop the winemaker and to encourage the continued growth of Queensland wine industry:

- Attendance at the Advanced Wine Assessment Course (AWAC) facilitated by the Australian Wine Research Institute;
- A $1,500 allowance towards travel costs associated with attendance at the AWAC;
- Invitation to the 2022 Royal Queensland Wine Show as an Associate Judge;
- Opportunity to enter into a 12-month commercial agreement with Treasury Brisbane to sell an agreed range in their wide array of restaurants and bars; and
- Invitation to attend and speak at functions hosted by Treasury Brisbane to promote their craft and range.

ELIGIBILITY

Any winemaker of an exhibit in the 2021 RQWS eligible to be labelled as Queensland wine (at least 85% of the wine must have been obtained from grapes grown in Queensland) may submit an application for the award.

The ideal applicant:

- Is currently working as a winemaker in the Queensland industry;
- Commits to participate in RQWS Awards Announcements; and
- Commits to attend RQWS and Treasury Brisbane events as required.

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Applicants must have eligible wine (see above) entered into the 2021 RQWS; and
2. Applicants must answer the question, "What makes you the Emerging Queensland Winemaker of the Year?" via an online form.

PLEASE NOTE

1. Attendance at the AWRI Advanced Wine Assessment course will be within the 2021 year, pending on course availability. If the successful applicant has already completed the abovementioned course an equivalent educational opportunity within the wine industry will be provided.
